After breakfast we are going to strike out immediately for St. Simon's Island, where we know a marvelous time awaits us. Tommy Ruth is now ready to get a bit to eat so I will bring this little note to a close. We expect to be back Sunday night, and so we will see you then.

Love to you both.

After breakfast we go to the beach and swim in the ocean. The hotel is very comfortable and the service is excellent. We will be back soon.
